II. RATIONALE/BACKGROUND

Natural and man-made disasters are becoming more frequent nowadays and the unpredictability of these occurrences may cause damages to the facilities and may sometimes cost the life of jail officers and/or persons deprived of liberty (PDL) if not properly managed beforehand. During these situations, the Bureau will activate its alert system to maximize the number of personnel in the field. As a practice, the order to raise alert status emanates from the National Headquarters, thus, Regional Offices would usually rely upon it.

Some of these situations are perceivable at the regional or jail levels prior to its occurrence, thus, regions or jail units may heighten their alert status without relying on the order from higher office/s. Timeliness is very crucial during these situations since the number of personnel in the field is vulnerable, thus, inmates and lawless elements may take advantage of any situation and any hostile plans could be carried out easily.

Proper notification of the situation for the purpose of monitoring and prompt action of the top management at any level is also vital and important in dealing with crisis.

Thus, this policy is set forth to enhance precautionary measures, preparedness of personnel, prevention of loss of lives and properties, reduction of jail crises, establishment and maintenance of the smooth flow of communication during critical situations and to strengthen the role of the Regional Directors and Jail Wardens in raising alert status.

III. OBJECTIVES

1. To provide comprehensive guidelines in raising alert status that aim to strengthen the security of jail facilities during normal and crisis situations;

2. To build a disaster resilient jail, institutionalize arrangements and measures to reduce incidents, and enhance preparedness and response capabilities in all BJMP-manned jail facilities; and

3. To apply effectively the standard management principles of planning, organizing, delegating, coordinating, staffing and evaluating of critical situations.

IV. SCOPE

This policy covers personnel in the National Headquarters, Regional Offices and all BJMP-manned jails.

V. DEFINITION OF TERMS

Alert Status – refers to the level of readiness of the agency, offices or field units in the prevention and/or dealing with actual or imminent dangers brought by man-made or natural disasters. Alert status is classified into three levels, as follows:

- White Alert Status – refers to first alert level for normal operations/situations.

- Blue Alert Status – refers to a higher level of alert status which requires 50% attendance of personnel. It is the second stage of alert level during which emergency preparations are carried out according to plan as reflected in the Incident Management System (IMS).

- Red Alert Status – refers to the highest level of alert which requires a 100% attendance of personnel. It is the final stage of alert in which an impending disaster or enemy attack appears imminent. Personnel are required to stay in an office/jail for 24-hour monitoring to immediately respond to critical incident/s, or in anticipation of a possible emergency situation. It includes, but is not limited to, planning, coordinating dissemination of information and activation of OPLANs.

Coordination - refers to exchange of information to inform, integrate, synchronize and de-conflict operations. It also includes, but is not limited to, coordination with inter-unit and allied agencies.

Crisis - is any event that is ongoing or is expected to take place that may lead towards an unstable and dangerous situation affecting an individual, group, community, or whole society, or is a turning point in the progress of an affair or a series of events.
Disaster – a situation and process involving a hazardous event which has negative consequences particularly damage to properties, livelihood disruption and/or casualties.

Emergency - an actual threat to an individual’s life or to public health and safety, or sudden occurrence of unfortunate events needing immediate response.

Field Level 1 Incidents – it includes but is not limited to, assault on another individual, contraband seizures, personnel arrest, personnel misconduct, and suicide or verbal threat.

Field Level 2 Incidents – incidents of exceptional significance that will likely draw media attention such as, but not limited to; escape, riot, noise barrage, disasters and other major jail incidents or death of inmates by reasons thereto.

Jailbreak- the escape from jail by two (2) or more PDL by the use of force, threat, violence or deceit or by breaching security barriers by varied means such as scaling the perimeter fence, tunneling and burning or destroying the facility or a portion of the facility with or without the aid of a jail officer/s or any other person.

Jail Escape - it is an act of leaving from jail of a PDL through unofficial and illegal ways without any legal orders from the authorities.

Jail Incident - any untoward or uncommon actions, events, or conditions such as jail break, riot, noise barrage, stabbing or assault inside the jail perpetrated by any person, which may or may not have been dependent on another action of grave or serious consequences such as escape, injury, death, fire, flood, earthquake or other calamities which affect the jails.

Lockdown - an emergency protocol ordered by jail authorities to protect the PDL, visitors and personnel inside the facility before, during and after jail incident.

Overpowered Jail Facility- is a situation where PDL, whether in whole or in part, control the facility.

VI. GENERAL GUIDELINES

1. The authority to issue order concerning alert status shall be vested upon the Directorate for Operations (DO) with the approval of the Chief, BJMP or by the Operations Division of Regional Office with the approval of Regional Director. At jail level, the Jail Warden has the full authority to issue said order.
2. Duration of alert status shall be dependent upon the situation in the field. The Directorate for Operations or Operations Division or the Jail Warden, as the case may be, shall exercise wide latitude of discretion as the circumstances may warrant in lifting or extending the duration of alert status.

3. Order of alert status must specify the alert level, its duration (in case with fixed period), area of coverage, relevant information and the actions to be taken by the concerned office/jail or personnel.

4. Red alert status shall be automatically observed in a particular jail/s in the instances of field level 2 incidents and/or as directed by higher authorities, and in field level 1 incidents if circumstances may warrant.

5. Alert status for an incoming calamity shall be declared at the earliest possible time to give the heads of offices or personnel ample time to prepare and carry-out plans of action and enhance readiness for extreme situations.

6. Upon recommendation and approval of the Chief, BJMP, the Directorate for Intelligence may also issue order of alert status to a particular region/s in cases of threat or attacks by lawless elements and/or terrorist group/s.

7. The Regional Office shall notify the Directorate for Operations of the alert status raised within their level, the reasons thereeto and the threat assessment, if any. The same procedure shall be observed by the Jail Wardens at their level.

8. Regional offices and jail units shall ensure that the fastest means of communication are always available such as, but not limited to radio, telephone, facsimile, electronic mail (e-mail) and short messaging system (SMS) using cellular phones or the issued satellite phone if any, so that vital information can reach the higher office the soonest possible time.

9. An alert status indicator (circle chart) containing red, blue and white colors with arrow indicating the alert level shall be displayed in any conspicuous area in the National Headquarters and respective Regional Offices and jails.
VII. RAISING OF ALERT STATUS

Alert Status should be raised in the following incidents or circumstances:

VIII. LIFTING/LOWERING OF ALERT STATUS

An alert status with fixed period shall be lifted automatically upon its prescription without a need for subsequent order unless extended by the issuing office for some valid reason/s. An alert status of indefinite period shall only be lifted after reaching the state of normalcy or if there is lessening of security/safety risks, and shall only be lifted by an official order from the issuing office.

The level of alert status may also be lowered from red alert to blue alert dependent upon the situation in the field subject to the recommendation of the Directorate for Intelligence/Directorate for Operations or by the Regional Directors if the order of alert status emanates from the NHQ. The lowering of alert status within the scope of the regions, shall be upon the recommendation of the Regional Intelligence Division/Operations Division of Regional Office or by the jail units, while Jail Wardens have the full authority to lower the alert status within their respective level.
